Subject: Quarry Trails; legal/financial structure of project?

Hello Tim,

Could we talk some time about how you have structured the Quarry Trails project? And if you think it would save time, if you have any info you could send beforehand that would be appreciated. As you may know, we're wrestling with the outcome of a significant property (30-40 acres, depending on how you count it) in the here of Worthington (commonly referred to as "UMCH" but recently purchased by Lifestyle Communities). Significant portions of the electorate (a clear majority I would say, including myself) are seeking to realize a community commons on the land. Thanks ahead of time.

David
